FROM OUR CEO

ALL IN FOR camp

At Flying Horse Farms, each person who helps to make camp possible — whether they come through the gate or not — becomes a member of a special family. The Flying Horse Farms camp community.

Of course, this includes camp staff who work every day to ensure camp is medically, physically, and emotionally safe for campers — always. This is also true of every volunteer who has helped serve lunch or danced with campers, each company that's sent a team to clean cabins or prepare activity areas, and every person, foundation, and organization that's donated time, capabilities, or financial gifts in support of transforming lives through the healing magic of camp.

It's because of this community that Flying Horse Farms is possible.

What I love about everyone in this special group is that we all understand just how much it means to our campers and families to have a place where they are always understood and valued. A place where they never have to apologize for the complexity of their medical needs or the simplicity of their want for quiet. A place they can consider their home.

Clea Newman, daughter of SeriousFun Children's Network founder Paul Newman, once shared, "What started out as my dad's dream of one camp where children with serious illnesses could simply be kids has turned into a global community." And she was right.

Everyone in this group cares deeply about camp. Each epitomizes our core value of "All Crew, No Passengers." You're all in for camp, and we are so thankful.

The names and faces you see in the following pages are representative of the thousands of generous souls who have helped bring camp to life for hundreds of campers and their families over the past year.

Thank you for providing healing, respite, and hope for so many. Thank you for being part of our camp community.

You will always have a place at our campfire.

Nichole E. Dunn
CEO/President, Flying Horse Farms

Flying Horse Farms is a medical specialty camp that provides healing, transformational experiences for children with serious illnesses and their families — at no cost. And while it may be just a week or weekend at camp, the experience provides a lifetime of impact.

Located on 200 acres in Mt. Gilead, Ohio, Flying Horse Farms was the first camp in the Midwest to become a full member of SeriousFun Children's Network. Founded by actor, philanthropist, and Ohio native Paul Newman, the Network is a community of 30 independently managed and financed camps and programs creating opportunities for children with serious illness and their families. SeriousFun has evolved from one camp to a global community delivering more than one million experiences to children and families across five continents, totally free of charge.

IGNITE THE spirit

CAMP IS A BLESSING. If anyone has a child with medical needs, I highly recommend this camp. Benny has been going for the past five years, and I really cannot say enough about how wonderful the experience is for children facing difficult challenges. When you drive in, the first thing they say is "Welcome Home," and to these children that is what camp truly feels like — home. A place they can be themselves with no judgement. A place they can be with others facing similar challenges. A place they can have fun and be free while still having their medical needs meet. A place filled with staff and volunteers who produce such amazing positive energy you can't help but have your spirits lifted.

My son was a first-time Ranger at camp this year, and he has really been struggling emotionally the past several months due to a new diagnosis and severe medication side effects. From the moment we walked in and the staff saw Benny, they immediately knew he was struggling and were already taking steps to help him find his way back to his usually confident and outgoing self. As a parent, although of course I will miss him, I also feel an overwhelming sense of relief that he is in a place that will nurture and support his flagging spirits and help rebuild his confidence and self-esteem. Words cannot express my gratitude for the opportunity he has had to attend each year — thank you, Flying Horse Farms, for all you do for our children.

2019 CAMP CREATOR heroes

THIS YEAR, NEARLY 900 CAMPERS CAME FOR A DOSE OF FUN AND HEALING AT FLYING HORSE FARMS. It took just about as many volunteers throughout the year to help make camp happen before each session. These “Camp Creators” came from 29 companies and organizations throughout Ohio. Each spent a day cleaning cabins, making beds, restocking supplies, and even pulling weeds – all in an effort to set the stage for healing and magic to happen as soon as campers came through the gate. And while the volunteers worked to support the campers, the participants and companies realized their own benefits as well.

“The Abercrombie & Fitch team has participated in Camp Creator days for several years now,” shared Lauren Axell, Associate Relations at Abercrombie & Fitch Co.

“Whether it be our 80+ incoming new hires or 65+ summer interns, we love having the opportunity to expose these groups to what camp is all about.”

Camp Creator days allow them to truly dive right in and showcase how deep-rooted and meaningful this partnership is to us. It’s impossible to not come out of the day feeling like you made a real difference.”

During a Camp Creator day experience, teams of volunteers “reset” camp for the next incoming session. Groups clean and replenish areas throughout camp – cabins, activity areas, the grounds, and the Big Red Barn.

“Camp Creator day volunteers’ help has been invaluable,” said David Hennessey, Chief Property Officer at Flying Horse Farms. “Without them, we simply wouldn’t be able to turn camp around as quickly as we do in between sessions. We’re grateful for each group that comes to camp and the work they do to help us keep up and repair areas as needed.”

In the case of Del-Co Water, they were able to fix a computer that regulates chlorine levels in the pool on their visit. “We’re thankful for their support and expertise,” said Hennessey. “And when it comes to the pool, I know the kids definitely are too.”

Del-Co Water saw benefits from their visit as well. "By coming to FHF and participating in Camp Creator Days, the employees saw firsthand the impact that they can make in a child's life by helping out, not just monetarily, but physically as well," said Lori Terry, Outreach Coordinator, Del-Co Water.

Groups participating in Camp Creator days also experience a little bit of camp life with lunch in the dining hall and a tour provided by camp staff.

"We loved the lunch and the tour," said Joanna Allen, Account Manager with CoverMyMeds. "We were so impressed by how well things were organized throughout the day and the craftsmanship of the buildings.

"From beginning to end, it was a wonderful experience. I would recommend this to anyone looking for a teambuilding experience for their team. You'll see the heart of your teammates and see them step up to help someone going through a tough time. It's wonderful that the kids Flying Horse Farms serves have this place and that we are able to help make it special for them."

2019 volunteer AWARDS

These award winners are camp champions in every sense of the word. They welcome our campers with open arms, keep camp squeaky clean, and spread the message of our mission. Without thousands of volunteers like these, camp would not be possible.

CAMPERS FIRST AWARD

Given to a camp volunteer who embodies our "Campers First" credo in all they do.

JOEY LENKEY

Joey has been hooked on camp since he volunteered at a Family Camp in the spring of 2018. In 2019, he first volunteered at three summer sessions, and would have kept volunteering had he not been accepted to medical school!

STAR POWER: Joey doesn't just love dancing to the "Git Up," he also loves encouraging campers to be their most authentic selves. By setting a fun and wacky example, he gives campers a safe space to do just that.

HEALER EXTRAORDINAIRE AWARD

Presented to the medical volunteer who provides care, healing, and assistance to our campers.

SARA ANDERSON & CHRISTY DENNIS

Sara first came to camp with her family in 2016 during a Family Camp Weekend.

She later introduced Christy to camp and the two volunteered together during Heart Week in 2019 and came back to fill in during other sessions as needed.

STAR POWER: This best friend duo loves volunteering together, and asked to be "on call" nurses for camp — helping the medical team whenever they can! Plus, Sara is an expert at making mint leaf crowns to ward off pesky mosquitoes.

COOL AWARD

The Community Outreach & Organizational Liaison Award is for an advocate who shares our story and engages new donors, fans, and volunteers.

EDGEWORK CREATIVE

Edgework hosts the popular 614 Reduction Sale in Columbus, raising thousands for camp. They've also shared their woodworking skills to help guide programming in the inaugural season of camp's HappyTimes Woodshop.

STAR POWER: Edgework created the Campfire Bench, which utilizes scrap materials in its production to minimize waste, and donates $50 from each purchase to camp!

NUTS AND BOLTS AWARD

For the facilities volunteer who provides heart, knowledge, and good old-fashioned elbow grease to help keep camp beautiful.

COLUMBUS SOCIETY OF COMMUNICATION ARTS (CSCA) GIVES BACK

CSCA Gives Back has partnered with camp since 2017, helping to bring the summer camp theme to life each year. From turning the Hole in the Wall into a space station to building a fairy community, they've done it all with style.

STAR POWER: CSCA volunteers developed an interactive scavenger hunt this summer that encouraged campers to explore camp!

ALL WORK, NO PAY AWARD

Given to honor the administrative intern/volunteer who provides assistance in the world of copying, filing, alphabetizing, and other important office tasks.

DANIELLE WEIDNER

Danielle first came to camp in 2016 as a Ranger volunteer and has since returned as a volunteer and seasonal staffer for three summers. This year, she returned to provide administrative support in the WellNest for multiple fall weekends.

STAR POWER: Danielle doesn't just love dancing after meals, she also choreographed the entire dance for the medical team's closing campfire performance!

ALL ABOARD AWARD

This is awarded to a board member who embodies our core values in and out of camp.

BILL D'ONOFRIO

After learning about Flying Horse Farms through another event, Bill has been full steam ahead about camp. His kids have donated in-kind supplies to camp instead of birthday presents and Bill has worked with his employer, Greif, to start a partnership with Flying Horse Farms.

STAR POWER: Not only is Bill a finance expert, he's a whiz at getting "pie-d." Bill volunteered during a family camp weekend in 2019 and smiled through catching a pie in the face from a camper!

CHEYANNE'S RISING STAR AWARD

Recognizes a young philanthropist — a volunteer younger than 18 who already values service in the community.

PHOENIX JOHNSON

After volunteering at camp through 4-H, Phoenix returned to volunteer as a member of the K-Crew three times last summer! She proved to be just as strong an individual contributor as a team player in the fast moving kitchen.

STAR POWER: Phoenix let her creativity flow in the kitchen — even giving campers a special treat when she spelled out “FHF” on yogurt parfaits using homemade mango puree.

CRAIG CAMPBELL SR. AWARD

Named after longtime dining hall volunteer Craig Campbell Sr., this is given to a dining hall volunteer who helps serve, cook, wash, and keep our bellies full.

DANNY GILMORE

Danny first came to camp as an OSU MedDiet Intern in 2017 and hasn't stopped coming back. He volunteered at almost every camp session in 2019 as a part of K-Crew using his dietary expertise to cook up magical meals for campers.

STAR POWER: Danny loves keeping everyone's belly full, but he's also known for his sweet dance moves and stage presence during opening campfire skits.

BOMA members have volunteered at Camp Creator days for six years, helping fix equipment, provide maintenance on camp's HVAC system, and even clean and polish our floors to make camp extra clean for campers!

HELPING HANDS AWARD

Given to a work-day group that has been outstanding as "Camp Creators" — making beds, cleaning cabins, picking up the grounds, and making camp look amazing.

BOMA

After a successful Camp Creator Day in 2014, BOMA has continued to return every year and even came for two Camp Creator Days in 2019! Additionally, BOMA has hosted an annual bowling event that benefits camp since 2015.

STAR POWER: This past year, BOMA volunteers managed to clean the upper windows of the Dining Hall. If that's not Star Power, we don't know what is!

GOLDEN PLUNGER AWARD

This is our "best of" award, given to honor the Flying Horse Farms volunteer who embodies the overall spirit of volunteerism by living all of our core values.

EMMA BARRETT

A camp supporter since 2014, Emma has served as a volunteer, seasonal staffer, and full-time staff member. Now she uses her experience from FHF as she tackles medical school at The Ohio State University.

STAR POWER: Emma is willing to jump in and do whatever it takes to support camp. Because of this, she's lifeguard, archery, and ropes course certified. She's also met Paul Newman, or as she referred to him, "the salad dressing man."

a home at CAMP

AFTER 6 YEARS OF SEARCHING, SETH AND JOSEPH FINALLY FOUND THEIR HOME AWAY FROM HOME.

Colorado natives Seth Olson and Joseph Merwin spent almost a decade volunteering with their local church, mentoring middle- and high-school aged children. Throughout this time, they built strong bonds with the volunteer community there. But after moving to San Francisco and then Columbus, they were unable to find a similar volunteer community experience. “We couldn’t find a family or a place that felt like home. We almost gave up on trying to find a place to volunteer that would be a good fit,” Joseph recalls.

But when Seth was chosen to volunteer at Flying Horse Farms in 2018 through his employer, Abercrombie & Fitch, and their SeriousFun Camp Counselor program, things brightened. Joseph applied to volunteer the same week, and they were off to camp.

“After the first day, we knew this was the place. I remember we looked at each other across the dining hall and smiled,” said Joseph. “We didn’t need any words to know our hearts were being filled by being able to love on these kids. We came for the kids, but we keep coming back for the community.”

What made camp even better was the fact that, unlike other places they had tried to volunteer, it didn’t matter that Seth and Joseph are a married couple.

“People already embraced us, and it didn’t change when people found out we were together,” said Seth.

They were blown away by not just the facilities and the medical team, but at how genuine and kind the camp staff was. Most of all, they love the silliness and controlled chaos of camp.

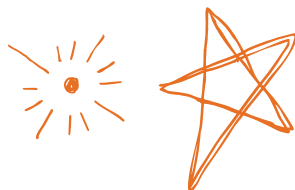

“Cabin chats are the most memorable. There are so many stories of these kids feeling welcomed and loved at camp,” said Seth.

Volunteering at camp has since impacted Seth and Joseph’s life in many ways. It reignited their passion to become parents and they have started fostering two sons. Joseph even said that camp has made him feel more prepared to become a parent.

“We’ve learned so many tools from camp training that I now utilize as a parent. It made me a more patient person,” he said. “It prepared me to be the parent I strive to be daily for our two little boys.”

ADOLESCENT YOUNG ADULT CAMP

The first-ever Adolescent Young Adult (AYA) Adventure Camp for campers ages 16-19 took place last November. In addition to traditional camp programming, campers experienced more 'grown-up' programming - like how to navigate the medical system as an adult and automotive care. This laid-back weekend will be expanded in 2020 to include campers up to the age of 21.

INTO THE WOODS

Tree people (also known as “treeple”) galore were seen throughout the summer given our theme, “Into the Woods.” The theme was complete with fairy garden, camp scavenger hunts, and more. During fall’s “Camp for the Holidays,” families celebrated holidays from New Year’s Eve to Thanksgiving and everything in between!

LARGEST CAMP SESSION EVER

With over 90 campers and almost 200 people at camp (including volunteers and staff), FHF hosted its largest camp session ever this past summer during Hematology/Oncology camp. That’s one full dining hall!

EVENTS & HIGHLIGHTS

RIME TIME

For the third year, Columbus-based Rime Time Curiously Crafted Pops graciously provided delicious popsicles every week for campers to snack on! These tasty treats are made with fresh ingredients and are allergen-friendly so more campers can enjoy them.

COOKING WITH WES AND GRAHAM

Flying Horse Farms' new cooking show, 'Cooking with Wes and Graham,' premiered in October! Featuring Wes Patterson, Food Service Director, and Graham Spangler, Sous Chef, the videos focus on easy-to-make allergen-friendly recipes. Stay tuned for what's to come by subscribing to the FHF YouTube channel!

SPRING INTO CAMP

In May 2019, we hosted our first “Spring Into Camp” for families who are new to camp. Families new to Flying Horse Farms were able to come to camp for the day to experience camp programming, visit the WellNest, and ask questions before sending their camper to FHF for a week. While the day was a little rainy, it didn’t stop new camper families from having a great time.

FRIENDS OF CAMP

We’re excited to welcome some new camp friends!

Caruso Coffee: Through this new partnership, 100% of the profits from each bag of Flying Horse Farms coffee sold will be donated to camp. Even better, this Cleveland-based coffee roaster was introduced to camp through a camper parent!

Singleton Construction: These amazing Camp Creators renovated some bathrooms around camp in-kind. Thank you for helping us keep the cabins in tip-top shape, Singleton!

Mission Supporters

YOU HELP CREATE THE MAGIC AND LIGHT THE FIRES. THANK YOU!

A camper's journey is made up of a million milestones — each one made possible by our supporters, just like you. Thanks to each one of the individuals, corporations, foundations, and organizations that propel our work forward, we are able to offer medically safe, healing, transformational experiences for children with serious illnesses and their families — always free of charge.

The following list reflects cumulative giving of $250 or more (cash, pledges, gifts in kind, and soft credits) received between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019.
