

Flying Horse Farms Community Guidelines & Social Media Policy

The purpose of Flying Horse Farms (FHF) social media platforms is to provide access to information related to camp programming and resources while upholding a positive and supportive online camp community.

To foster inclusive conversation and engagement, FHF welcomes comments, questions and concerns across all of our social platforms. Please be aware that all user-generated posts are monitored, and the following types of content are not tolerated and, if posted, will be removed:

- Harassment - any form of harassment, discrimination, or intimidation.
- Discriminatory comments or images based on ethnicity, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, or other forms of diversity.
- Bullying of any kind.
- Libel or misleading statements that spread false or harmful information.
- Inappropriate content that is disrespectful and/or deemed inappropriate.
- Profanity and inappropriate phrases or images – users should refrain from using offensive language or inappropriate expressions.
- Spam and clearly off topic content - posting repetitive, irrelevant, or unsolicited content.

User disclaimer: Statements made by individuals on any of FHF's social media outlets or platforms owned by FHF do not represent the values or beliefs of FHF. We reserve the right to remove, block, or take further legal action against any content that violates these guidelines.
